Property overview

About this property

Welcome to this beautifully remodeled and furnished coastal retreat in the heart of Holmes Beach. Set on a generous 0.24-acre corner lot, this spacious single-level home offers four bedrooms, two and a half baths and 2,223 square feet of inviting living space. The bright, open interior is designed for effortless gathering and entertaining. The updated kitchen features an oversized island with seating, stone countertops, abundant cabinetry and new stainless-steel appliances. The kitchen flows naturally into the dining and living areas, while stylish tile flooring, plantation shutters and recessed lighting enhance the home's fresh coastal character. The large primary suite includes a spacious walk-in closet and an impressive en-suite bath with a freestanding soaking tub and separate walk-in shower. Three additional bedrooms provide comfortable accommodations for family and guests, and a convenient laundry closet includes a new washer and dryer. Outside, enjoy colorful tropical landscaping and a sizable yard with space to relax and entertain. The property provides parking for up to four vehicles and is ideally located approximately 0.2 miles from the Holmes Beach pickleball and tennis courts and 0.4 miles from public beach access. Anna Maria Island's shopping, dining and recreational amenities are all within easy reach. Currently configured as a completely remodeled single-family residence, the property also has the potential to be reestablished as a duplex or triplex, subject to applicable municipal approvals and verification. Offered furnished and supported by a one-week minimum rental period, this island home offers excellent vacation-rental income potential along with the flexibility to serve as a full-time residence or personal coastal getaway.
