Property overview

About this property

This beautifully restored Hyde Park home blends vintage charm with modern luxury and outstanding curb appeal. Highlights include original hardwood floors, a marble see-through fireplace, a 100-bottle wine cooler, a fenced rear yard with a heated pool and spacious pool deck. and a unique rooftop widow’s walk. The main residence features three bedrooms, two and a half bathrooms, and a great room with a fully updated kitchen. High-end finishes include wood shaker cabinetry, quartz countertops, and premium Subzero and Wolf appliances. Additional outdoor spaces include a wrap-around front porch and a full-width rear balcony. The primary suite measures 15' x 18' and offers a flexible layout, along with an ensuite bath featuring marble floors, a double-sink vanity, a large shower, and a generous walk-in closet with a fold-down ironing board. Its private balcony connects to the guest wing and provides access to the pool deck via exterior stairs. The guest wing adds versatility. The first-floor room is currently used as a home gym. Still, it includes a closet and ensuite full bath and could easily be used as a guest bedroom. Upstairs, the office is filled with natural light from three sides and includes a full bath and laundry area, allowing it to serve as another bedroom if desired. A circular staircase leads from this space to the home’s distinctive 9'2" x 14'9" rooftop widow’s walk, ideal for enjoying views and the breezes from Tampa Bay. Some furniture may be available by separate agreement. MUCH MORE INFO is attached – ask your agent for copies, especially the FEATURES LIST.
