Property overview

About this property

This property is virtually staged. Step back in time — without giving up a single modern comfort. This beautifully preserved 1903 Craftsman bungalow sits on one of Old West Tampa's most photogenic streets, where original cigar-brick pavers and turn-of-the-century homes set the scene. Behind the columned front porch and signature gabled roofline, a fully updated 3-bedroom, 1-bath home (plus a dedicated office) delivers timeless character, thoughtful 2024 improvements, and rare in-town value. Inside, the open living and dining area flows beneath crown molding and rich hardwood floors, anchored by a bright, functional kitchen with a refrigerator, full-size range, built-in microwave, custom tile backsplash, and a stackable washer and dryer tucked neatly into its own nook. The renovated bath features a tub/shower with floor-to-ceiling marble-look tile. Three comfortable bedrooms and a separate office — ideal for working from home — round out a layout that lives larger than its footprint. The home wears its history well: original shiplap and wood siding, two inviting porches, and a fully screened rear porch made for year-round Florida evenings. Major systems have already been addressed — updated electrical and plumbing, a 2018 roof, and an insulated attic — and the seller provides a wind mitigation report (which may help lower insurance costs) plus a boundary survey, saving the next owner real money after closing. A fully fenced yard offers privacy and security, with gated parking and convenient rear-alley access. Climate control is currently handled efficiently by window A/C units; the home was previously served by a 2.5-ton RUUD 14-SEER central system (2019), and the existing ductwork remains — so a buyer can simply add a replacement condenser to restore full central air if desired. Historic charm, modern updates, and built-in buyer savings make 2118 W Palmetto a rare find in a rapidly appreciating pocket just minutes from Downtown Tampa, Armature Works, the Riverwalk, and Midtown.
