Property overview

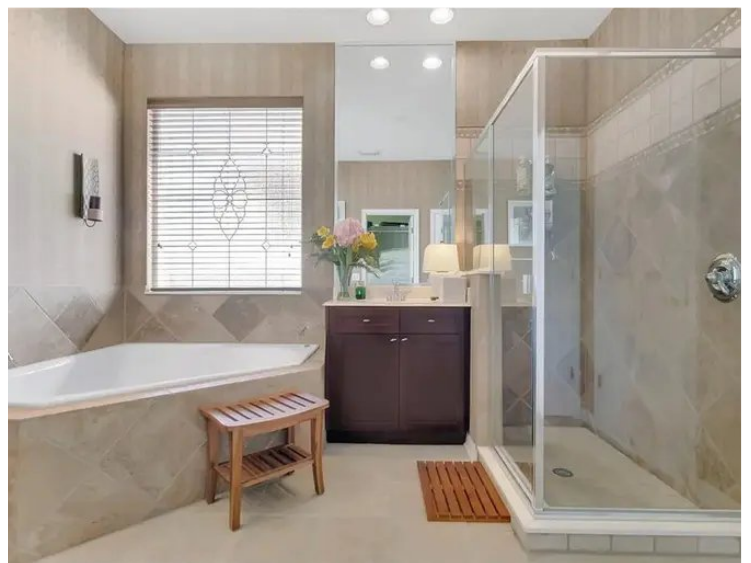

About this property

With timeless curb appeal and a front porch built for slow mornings, this Windermere home blends classic charm with the upgrades that make everyday life easier. Step inside and the ceilings rise, sunlight floods through, and hardwood floors (2021) lead you through open living and dining spaces that flow seamlessly into a remodeled kitchen with quartz countertops, updated cabinetry, and dual pantries that actually hold it all. The primary suite sits privately on the main floor with with a large walk in closet, and ensuite, while three additional bedrooms offer room to spread out — perfect for guests, a home office, or both. The main-level guest bath keeps accessibility in mind with a sleek zero-entry shower, while a nearby half bath makes life easier for everyday traffic. Upstairs, a full suite with its own bath creates the ideal spot for visitors, multi-generational living, or a tucked-away retreat when you need a breather. Covered porches in both the front and back extend your living outdoors, while a rear-entry two-car garage keeps the curb appeal clean. Inside the garage, a wheelchair ramp provides easy access from the garage — and can be removed by the seller if not needed. Major updates are already handled: newer roof (2021), water heater (2018), and one of two HVACs replaced in 2021. Low HOA dues get you high-return perks — a resort-style pool, lake pier for fishing and star-gazing, tennis, volleyball, basketball, playgrounds, and open green space for everything else. All of it just minutes from Windermere’s shops, dining, and top-rated schools. High ceilings, natural light, updates for modern comfort — this is the Windermere vibe, done right.
