Property overview

About this property

Welcome to 535 Muirfield Loop a designer-furnished golf-course retreat in Reunion Resort, perfectly suited as a primary residence, vacation haven, or high-yield rental. This turnkey property features an open-concept main living area with a first-floor master suite, a gourmet kitchen with gas appliances, a central island, granite countertops, and a breakfast bar, with French doors opening to a private pool area that offers fairway views and a summer kitchen. For additional bed count, two queen beds have been added to the bonus room for higher occupancy needs. The transformed garage has been converted into a state-of-the-art movie theater and arcade/game room, Marvel and Beauty and the Beast designed suites add fun for the young and the young at heart. Clever, thoughtfully designed spaces abound, and a large second-floor terrace overlooks the 14th hole on the Jack Nicklaus Signature Course. This home is perfect for multi-family gatherings as well as private retreats. The home currently has management in place with future bookings, should the new owner choose to retain management. An active Reunion Resort membership provides access to three championship golf courses and an award-winning water park. Schedule a private showing to experience the lifestyle and potential of this exceptional property.
