Property overview

About this property

Virtually Staged. Located in North Tampa, this residence offers a functional layout with comfortable living spaces and a versatile floor plan suited to a variety of needs. The interior provides a natural flow that works well for everyday living, entertaining, or future customization. This property presents a great opportunity for a buyer looking to add personal touches and make improvements over time. Outdoor space adds additional flexibility for relaxing, gardening, or future enhancements. Conveniently situated near major roadways, shopping, dining, parks, and the University area, this home offers easy access to many of Tampa's key destinations. There is a possible cross property lien issue the seller is trying to resolve, which may delay closing.
