Property overview

About this property

Set on an elevated corner homesite within Isleworth, this four-bedroom residence presents a unique opportunity to secure a coveted address in one of Central Florida's most distinguished private golf communities. Encompassing more than 4,700 square feet, the property offers exceptional potential for renovation, customization, or the creation of a new vision tailored to today's luxury lifestyle. Positioned overlooking the 6th tee of Isleworth's renowned championship golf course and across from a scenic pond with water features, the homesite enjoys a picturesque setting with golf and water views and mature landscaping. Existing amenities include a pool, summer kitchen, circular driveway, and a three-car garage. For buyers seeking an opportunity to personalize a home within Isleworth or establish a long-term presence in this exceptional community, few properties offer such a compelling combination of location, scale, and potential. Surrounded by the Butler Chain of Lakes and secured by four staffed guard gates, Isleworth is renowned for its championship golf, exceptional amenities, and unparalleled lifestyle, with club membership available separately.
