Property overview

About this property

Welcome to Dover Cove, where your next great real estate opportunity awaits in the heart of Orlando. Nestled in a peaceful and desirable neighborhood, this charming single-family home features three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a convenient two car garage, and a spacious rear enclosed porch that offers a wonderful view of the backyard space. The property is ideally positioned in a fantastic location that keeps you close to Orlando's best shopping, dining, entertainment, and major commuter routes, giving you the best of both peaceful community living and urban convenience. Built with strong construction and a traditional, functional floor plan, this is a structurally solid home that is ready for its next chapter. While the property has not been updated for quite a few years and needs some work and TLC to bring it up to modern standards, it presents a rare canvas for buyers with a vision. It is the perfect project for those looking to customize a home to their exact taste or establish a dependable, long-term income property in a consistently high-demand rental market. This home is exceptionally appealing to growing families who want to bring their contractor, design ideas, and vision to create a custom dream home in a welcoming neighborhood without paying inflated prices for someone else's renovation choices. It is equally attractive to long-term investors looking to build or expand their portfolios with a solid buy-and-hold rental property. Because rental demand remains strong throughout central Orlando, implementing minor cosmetic updates and necessary repairs will easily position this home as a lucrative and sought-after rental asset. Opportunities like this in Dover Cove do not last long, so schedule your showing today and unlock the true potential of this Orlando gem.
