Property overview

About this property

Virtually Staged. 1515 S West Shore Blvd is a one-story Tampa home built in 1957, set behind a gated paver driveway with Mediterranean-style architecture and a tile roof. The open-concept kitchen anchors the main living area with a large center island, white cabinetry, and a full appliance layout that supports cooking and gathering. Columns and a fireplace define the adjoining living and dining spaces across an expansive floor plan. Three full bathrooms include walk-in showers paired with vanity storage for daily routines. A screened, covered lanai extends the living area into the backyard for shaded outdoor use, while a two-car garage adds parking and storage. This spacious single-level layout completes a well-appointed residence. Included 100-Day Home Warranty with buyer activation
