Property overview

About this property

Virtually Staged. 466 Leland Dr is a one-story Deltona home built around a screened-in pool and covered lanai. The kitchen has wood cabinetry, tile flooring, and generous counter space, connecting to the dining and living areas for an open feel. The main living room features a fireplace, while additional living space offers flexibility across the floor plan. Bedrooms are finished with wood-look flooring and carpet and are comfortably sized, served by full bathrooms with tub-and-shower combinations and a separate glass-enclosed shower. Tile and wood-look flooring run through the shared spaces. Out back, the screened pool and covered patio create an inviting outdoor space within a fenced yard. The single-level layout keeps everyday living easy and connected. Included 100-Day Home Warranty with buyer activation
