Property overview

About this property

Built by RCB Custom Homes as the builder’s personal residence, this exceptional 5-bedroom, 5-bath residence offers 3,506 square feet of thoughtfully designed luxury in the highly desirable Oakland Park neighborhood. Completely remodeled within the past two years, no detail was overlooked in creating a home that is as refined as it is comfortable. Beautiful new hardwood flooring, custom wood beams, designer wallpaper, upscale tile selections, custom cabinetry, premium appliances, and an antique barn wood fireplace treatment create distinctive character throughout. Custom automated blinds and a complete repaint add the finishing touches to this beautifully curated home. Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the home features inviting screened front and side porches, with an outdoor kitchen. The premium lot faces a long green park with views of Lake Apopka, adjacent to the community clubhouse & amenities . Beyond the beautiful finishes are the exceptional behind-the-scenes upgrades that truly set this home apart, including a whole-home generator, spray foam insulation for impressive energy efficiency, an expansive climate-controlled attic offering valuable conditioned storage, and wiring in place for a future water treatment system. Enjoy all that Oakland Park has to offer, including two community pools and a prime location within the golf cart district. A complete list of upgrades and improvements is available upon request. This is a rare opportunity to own a meticulously remodeled custom residence where luxury, craftsmanship, comfort, and thoughtful design come together.
