Property overview

About this property

212 W Hiawatha St is a single-story Tampa home built in 1940 with three bedrooms, two full bathrooms, a half bathroom and 1,131 square feet of living area. The kitchen features white cabinetry, a breakfast bar and installed range, microwave and dishwasher. Its open connection to the living area creates a continuous gathering space with recessed lighting and a ceiling fan. The primary bedroom extends into an adjoining room and includes an attached bathroom with a shower. Additional bedrooms provide separate spaces along the hall. A rear deck adds outdoor gathering space beside the yard, completing the home's connected indoor and outdoor layout. Included 100-Day Home Warranty with buyer activation
