Property overview

About this property

Inside, you'll find an open-concept layout designed for comfort and connection. The kitchen features granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a large island ideal for gathering after a day at the parks. The home is completely furnished and move-in ready, including themed bedrooms that create a memorable experience for guests and family alike. The converted garage game room — complete with pool table and air hockey — adds an extra layer of entertainment that today's vacation renters look for. Currently operating as a short-term rental, this property gives you options: • Continue generating rental income • Use it as your personal vacation home • Do both — enjoy it and offset expenses No existing management contract means you're in full control from day one. • Built in 2022 — newer systems, lower maintenance • Fully furnished — skip the setup time and expense • Active short-term rental use • Game room for added guest appeal • Located in a golf cart-friendly resort community Enjoy access to: • Private water park • Resort-style pools • Fitness center • Sports courts • 24-hour gated security Minutes from Walt Disney World®, Universal Orlando, and Central Florida's top attractions — making this an ideal location for both personal use and guest demand. Whether you're looking for a vacation home, a second property, or a way to combine lifestyle and income potential, this home offers a turnkey opportunity in one of Central Florida's most recognized resort communities.
