Property overview

About this property

Single family home with detached ADU perfect for a small business, rental with separate entrance or in-law. Step into the charm of this beautifully maintained 1908 bungalow—perfect for families who love to entertain. This spacious 1,830 sq ft home offers a versatile layout with two bedrooms, a bonus room, and a private in-law suite located at the rear of the property. The outdoor space is truly a standout feature, boasting a covered patio complete with an outdoor kitchen—ideal for hosting gatherings and family celebrations. A covered driveway provides ample parking for up to eight vehicles, a rare and valuable convenience. Inside, the main bathroom is thoughtfully designed with a walk-in shower, toilet, and bidet. The kitchen blends vintage charm with functionality, featuring an antique gas stove with a built-in griddle—perfect for making delicious breakfasts. Additional highlights include a side porch with extra storage and a shed, as well as a welcoming front porch—an inviting spot to relax and connect with neighbors. Ceramic tile flooring runs throughout the home, adding durability and easy maintenance. Located close to Desoto Waterfront Park, where residents can enjoy a variety of amenities including a fitness trail, community pool, playground, skateboard park, tennis courts, and basketball courts—all set along the beautiful waterfront. This home is centrally located 15 minutes to downtown/Channelside, The Florida Aquarium, Benchmark Arena, Ybor city and the Port of Tampa. It is also 20 minutes to Busch Gardens/Adventure Island and Tampa International airport with the Crosstown and I275 entrance off 22nd street. The beaches are only 35 minutes away as well. Work from home perfect for a hairdresser, accountant, catering or business with the detached in-law suite. The Pathway to Palmetto Project was just given a grant for 30 million to improve this neighborhood and waterfront community. Now is the time to buy in the neighborhood before the investors find out.
