Property overview

About this property

This is luxury living without all the work. You get the ease of condo living, but with the privacy, space, and land of your own house. Just an incredible place to live and enjoy. Set on a beautiful oak-lined street in Villa Rosa Park, just steps from Bayshore Boulevard, this award-winning contemporary house is anything but ordinary. From the minute you walk in, you get it. The custom steel pivot door opens to a three-story entry with a stacked stone wall, designer lighting, and a floating walnut staircase. It's bold, modern, and makes an impression without trying too hard. The house spans three levels and was built for easy living. All-block construction, hurricane-rated windows and doors, an elevator to every floor, whole-house Generac generator, tankless gas water heater, water filtration, Savant smart-home system, and security are all already here. The main living area opens completely to the backyard through EuroWall stacking glass doors. Outside, you have your own private escape with a pool and spa, gas fire pit, outdoor speakers, and custom landscape lighting. Open the doors and the whole space becomes one big indoor-outdoor living area. Inside, whitewashed wide-plank oak floors keep everything light and modern. The kitchen has Thermador appliances, custom Busby cabinetry, leathered quartzite countertops, and plenty of space to cook, gather, and entertain. And then there's the cocktail bar with two 84-inch wine towers and an ice maker. It's ready for a party whenever you are. Car lover? You're covered. There is a climate-controlled garage with room for three cars with use of the car lift. Upstairs, there's a private movie theater with CinemaTech seating for eight and a 120-inch screen. The second floor also includes a primary suite with a department store style walk in closet and two additional bedrooms and baths. And then you get to the third-floor sky deck! This is where you'll want to end the day. There's a covered bar, sound system, TVs, plenty of room for friends, and some seriously beautiful Florida sunsets. The best part? This house is designed to be enjoyed and entertain. It's private, low-maintenance, modern, and ready to go. Pool days. Movie nights. Cars in the garage. Drinks on the rooftop. Walks along Bayshore. This is Tampa living done right.
