Property overview

About this property

Under Construction. Under Construction — still time to make it yours. Your opportunity to put your own touches on this new two-story home at 2825 W Shelton Avenue in Tampa, offering 3,618 total square feet with 2,931 square feet of living area. The five-bedroom, four-bath split plan places the private primary suite on the first floor with two walk-in closets and an ensuite bath, while four additional bedrooms and a versatile loft sit upstairs. Ten-foot ceilings run throughout the main level, opening to a nearly twenty-foot two-story foyer. The main floor flows from a spacious living and dining room to an open kitchen with center island, breakfast nook and walk-in pantry, and a light-filled leisure room with access to the covered porch. Built for Florida living with durable construction and an attached two-car garage, the home sits with its finished floor at 11'-2" NAVD, above the required design flood elevation — an elevated, code-current home in a well-established Tampa neighborhood close to shopping, schools and major routes. At this stage of construction, buyers still have the opportunity to personalize selections and discuss modifications with the builder — bring your vision and let's make this home your own.
