Property overview

About this property

Pride of ownership! Welcome to this very well kept home in the heart of Tampa! Situated on a large corner lot within a quiet neighborhood, this beautiful home has a lot to offer! The exterior features a red brick aesthetic while sitting underneath large mature oak trees that help provide shade and tranquility. A new owner would enjoy ample driveway and carport space for multiple vehicles as well. Upon entering the home, you'll be welcomed by gleaming real hardwood floors, that have been expertly maintained throughout the years. The living area enjoys lots of natural light across the space, with the windows sporting built in shutters. Your galley style kitchen has granite countertops, wood cabinetry, sparkling backsplash, and plenty of space for cooking and entertaining. The kitchen, dining area, and sun-room feature beautiful travertine stone tile flooring that blends perfectly with the wood flooring in the adjacent rooms. All guest bedrooms are well equipped and have the continuous hardwood flooring. The primary suite features a large bedroom, full en-suite bathroom, and a separate entrance through the backyard, offering flexibility to the owner. The lot has a large backyard with a storage shed, extra driveway space for vehicles, and access to the rest of the corner lot. Don't miss this opportunity to own a very well loved and maintained home. The property is close to Tampa International Airport, Downtown and Midtown, Tampa Zoo, Busch Gardens, I-275 and I-4, restaurants, attractions and more!
