Property overview

About this property

FURNISHED! This beautifully renovated residence in Tampa, Florida, offers an exceptional living experience. The property has undergone significant upgrades, ensuring modern comfort and style. The interior features a bright and spacious living room, a contemporary kitchen equipped with stainless steel appliances and stone countertops, and versatile flex spaces suitable for a home office or dining area. Further enhancing its appeal, this home boasts low-maintenance tile flooring throughout, eliminating carpet entirely. A private, screened-in patio overlooks a generously sized, fully fenced backyard. For a seamless transition, the seller is including furniture with the property. Located just two miles from Busch Gardens and Moffitt Cancer Center, and five miles from the University of South Florida and Ybor City, this residence provides both comfort and convenient access to Tampa's vibrant attractions.
