Property overview

About this property

Under Construction. David Weekley, big on style, function, and value! This thoughtfully designed 4-bedroom, 3-bath home with a dedicated office and bonus room offers all the space you need with nearly 2700 square feet. Our Saltillo floor plan offers a big bang for your buck and no wasted space! The open-concept layout creates an inviting flow between the kitchen, dining, and living areas, making it ideal for everyday living and entertaining. The warm and timeless kitchen features cream and warm sandy tones with satin bronze hardware. KitchenAid stainless steel appliances, a gas cooktop, generous counter space, and abundant cabinetry and backsplash that stretch up to the ceiling that doesn't leave the dust collector above them. One of our favorite features is the mud room. It is conveniently located walking in from the garage and is the perfect spot to leave your things and have them hidden from your living space. A guest suite is positioned on the first floor with walk in shower to allow for first floor living. In addition to the guest suite, a versatile home office with glass french doors provides the perfect work-from-home space. The entire back of the home features a wall of windows allowing lots of natural light to shine in and a view of the covered lanai and oversized fenced in back yard. Step outside to a spacious backyard with plenty of room to add the pool of your dreams while still enjoying green space for entertaining or play. Upstairs, you'll find a generous primary suite and fantastic walk-in closet that we challenge you to fill! Tray ceiling, super shower and private water closet with the same colors and tones carried upstairs. Across the second floor are 2 secondary bedrooms with a shared bath, laundry room with folding table and a bonus room, great for a playroom, fitness area or flex space to fit your lifestyle. Just to name a few extra bonus items in this home, ship lap wall in family room, bank of cabinets in the dining area, gas tankless hot water heater, epoxy garage floor, and hard-surface flooring throughout—no carpet! All of this in the popular Riverside Heights neighborhood with brick streets, parks and less than 2 miles to the Riverwalk. Offering the perfect combination of thoughtful design, quality upgrades, and exceptional value, this home is a must-see!
