Property overview

About this property

Located in the historic Old Seminole Heights neighborhood, this 1920s bungalow offers a blend of preserved character and thoughtful updates. The classic front porch welcomes you into a light-filled interior featuring wood floors, complemented by updated vinyl plank flooring in the primary bedroom. The living room showcases an original brick fireplace, adding to the home's period charm. The kitchen includes partial cabinet updates and newer appliances for added convenience. Since purchasing the home, the sellers have completed several improvements, including a full repipe completed around 2021–2022, a new AC system, new water heater, new wood fencing, kitchen enhancements, and updated flooring in the back room. A detached garage provides additional storage and houses the washer and dryer. This property offers a combination of historic appeal and modern updates in a sought-after location known for its character homes and proximity to local amenities.
