Property overview

About this property

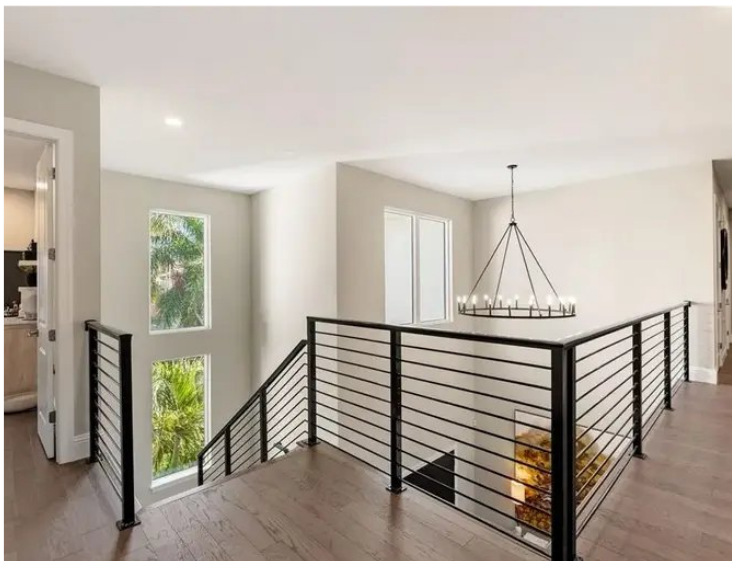

Welcome to a rare waterfront opportunity at the coveted end of West Neptune Way in Beach Park—a Steven Anthony Luxury Homes showcase offering sophisticated design, abundant storage, and resort-style outdoor living. This stunning 5-bedroom, 5.5-bathroom pool and spa home also features a dedicated office, expansive bonus/media room, and covered lanais under roof on both floors, creating exceptional indoor-outdoor living. Thoughtfully positioned to capture western-facing views, the home offers spectacular sunsets over the Tampa skyline and water. Set along one of Tampa’s most desirable waterfront stretches, the home enjoys exceptional street presence with no overhead power lines, attractive street lighting, and beautiful curb appeal. Inside, a thoughtfully designed floor plan features soaring 12-foot ceilings, generous living spaces, and elevated finishes throughout. The chef’s kitchen is equipped with Wolf appliances, Wellborn cabinetry, an oversized walk-in pantry, and separate butler’s pantry, making it ideal for everyday living and entertaining. In the family room, a dramatic floor-to-ceiling tiled wall with a natural gas fireplace and integrated LED lighting creates a striking focal point. Built-in speakers throughout the interior and outdoor living areas enhance the home’s entertaining capabilities. A private first-floor guest suite features an en-suite bath, built-ins, and separate exterior entrance—ideal for overnight guests or extended stays. A dedicated office offers extensive built-in shelving, while a powder bath and laundry rooms on both floors add convenience. Upstairs, additional en-suite bedrooms provide privacy and flexibility, while the impressive bonus/media room features a dry bar and direct access to the second-floor covered lanai. The spacious primary suite is a retreat of its own and includes a private dry bar. An elevator shaft is in place for the option of a future elevator. Storage has been exceptionally well considered throughout. The air-conditioned garage features floor-to-ceiling built-in cabinetry and space for multiple vehicles, including a LiftMaster setup. Additional conveniences include three HVAC systems installed in 2020, two tankless water heaters, a Kinetico water system with purified drinking water, full irrigation, and an owned 22kW Generac whole-house generator. Outside, the home transforms into a private waterfront retreat designed for year-round Florida living. Covered lanais on both floors provide shaded outdoor living overlooking the water, pool, and spa, with the western orientation creating an incredible backdrop as the sun sets over the Tampa skyline. Low-maintenance turf surrounds the pool and spa, complemented by full LED pool lighting, while a gas fireplace creates an inviting gathering space. The fully equipped outdoor kitchen features an Alfresco grill with smoker and side burner, along with a dry bar and extended cabinetry. Landscape lighting throughout the trees creates a beautiful setting after sunset, while pet-friendly gates and fencing add functionality. For days on the water, the custom dock is designed for boating and watersports, with dock and underwater lighting, a covered boat lift, custom steps for easy boat access, and dedicated kayak and paddleboard storage. From sunset gatherings and poolside entertaining to effortless water access, this exceptional
