Property overview

About this property

Virtually Staged. Welcome Home! This charming two-story home on 7611 S De Soto St is in a friendly neighborhood and is offered with Seller motivation. Featuring three bedrooms and two and a half bathrooms, the home offers a versatile open loft and a dedicated home office. As you approach the beautifully landscaped yard, you'll step inside to discover an inviting interior highlighted by a cozy sitting room with classic checkerboard-style flooring, ideal for entertaining or as a home office with a view of the front yard. The spacious, open floor plan showcases a modern kitchen with stylish satin gold cabinet hardware, a large island and breakfast bar perfect for quick meals, shiplap accent walls, stainless steel appliances, and an expansive walk-in pantry. Natural light floods the first floor, illuminating the kitchen, generous living and dining areas, and a space for a bar or hutch—perfect for hosting family and friends while allowing the chef to mingle and entertain. As you make your way to the backyard, you'll enjoy a half bathroom for guests and storage nooks throughout for your home decor. Discover the spaciousness of this charming backyard, featuring a lush turfed lawn, a covered patio with a TV perfect for watching your favorite games or shows, and brick-paved areas ideal for grilling or soaking up the sun. Enjoy the versatile mulched space, perfect for setting up a fire pit, cozy Adirondack chairs, and beverages, or imagine installing your dream pool to create unforgettable summer memories. Located in the highly desirable Southport community and within the "A" rated Robinson High School district, this home offers both comfort and convenient living.
