Property overview

About this property

Virtually Staged. Set within the gated Huntington neighborhood of Tampa Palms, 5037 Wesley Drive brings together spacious single-story living and an inviting outdoor retreat. Offering 4 bedrooms, 3 full bathrooms, and 2,913 square feet of living space, this residence features engineered hardwood flooring, a wood-burning fireplace, and sliding glass doors that connect the interior to the outdoor living areas. A heated, in-ground saltwater pool takes center stage outdoors, complemented by an outdoor kitchen and grill for effortless entertaining. From relaxed afternoons by the water to evening gatherings, the private yard offers space to enjoy Florida living throughout the year. A dedicated laundry room and attached three-car garage add everyday convenience, while the stucco exterior and tile roof complete the home’s architectural appeal. The Tampa Palms location provides convenient access to shopping, dining, USF, Moffitt Cancer Center, and major roadways, with parks and recreational opportunities throughout the surrounding community. Discover a home that combines comfortable interiors, exceptional outdoor amenities, and a connected New Tampa location.
