Property overview

About this property

This centrally located Seminole Heights bungalow brings the charm - plus it's got a rare, detached one bedroom apartment on the grounds. Kick back under the oaks on your spacious screened front porch, then step inside to hardwood floors, traditional built-in bookcases dividing the kitchen and living area, and a full wall of original wardrobe built-ins with vintage hardware in the bedroom. This home features updated electrical and plumbing, sound-deadening windows, and it's not in a flood zone, so you'll stay high and dry! This oversized lot offers alley access, off-street parking, and an electrified storage shed ready for a studio, workshop, or garage space. All this in the heart of the historic Seminole Heights neighborhood, you'll be surrounded by beloved breweries, restaurants, coffee shops, artsy local businesses, and centrally located around the major airports and interstates. Your Florida oasis has entered the chat.
