Property overview

About this property

Built in 1950, this charming block-and-stucco home features an open-concept layout spanning 1,008 square feet of fully remodeled living space. Enjoy a fresh, contemporary aesthetic with all-new flooring, updated countertops, and stylish tile work throughout. An expansive, fully fenced-in backyard provides plenty of room for entertainment, relaxation, or pets with a storage shed. The layout features a secluded master bedroom complete with a private en-suite bath. An oversized front driveway offers ample parking spaces for residents and visiting guests. The home sits on a quiet street off Dale Mabry Highway, just minutes from MacDill Air Force Base, Downtown Tampa, Hyde Park and access to world-class dining, shopping, and nightlife. If the beaches are calling your name you have an easy commute across the bay to the award winning Gulf beaches of Pinellas County. With its prime location, contemporary upgrades, and generous outdoor features, this property is perfect for anyone seeking an easy-care lifestyle close to the best of Tampa Bay. Call today and dont let this one get away!!!
