Meticulously maintained and beautifully appointed, this modern Craftsman home by Momentum Homes is ideally situated on a quiet street in Palma Ceia Park, one of South Tampa’s premier neighborhoods. A paved driveway leads to the inviting covered front porch, featuring a wood-planked ceiling and welcoming entryway. Inside, past the foyer is a private downstairs guest suite with French doors and access to a full bath with a shower, offering the perfect space for guests, a home office, or den. A walk-in pantry tucked beneath the staircase provide additional convenience and storage. Just off the kitchen, a thoughtfully designed mudroom area with hooks and cubbies provides easy access to the garage, which features an epoxy-coated floor. Upstairs, the spacious primary suite offers a tranquil retreat with dual walk-in closets and an elegant tray ceiling accented by two levels of crown molding. The luxurious primary bath features split vanities with generous drawer storage, a linen cabinet, freestanding soaking tub, and an oversized shower with frameless glass and both stationary and handheld showerheads, along with a private water closet. Bedrooms three and four share a well-appointed Jack-and-Jill bath with a tub/shower combination, while the fifth bedroom enjoys its own private bath with a shower. Conveniently located near the bedrooms, the spacious laundry room is equipped with upper and lower cabinetry, quartz countertops, a utility sink, and a gas dryer connection. The great room opens through dual French doors to a spacious screened-in back porch, creating an effortless transition to the outdoor living areas. The paved lanai features a stunning outdoor kitchen with an open-stone finish, granite countertops, natural-gas grill, ice maker, and beverage refrigerator—perfect for entertaining year-round. Much of the backyard is also paved and surrounded by lush tropical landscaping along the PVC privacy fence, creating a private and inviting outdoor retreat.
