Property overview

About this property

Enjoy a little more outdoors and a lot more Tampa. Just a block from Rowlett Park and down the road from the Hillsborough River, this charming 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom bungalow puts riverside trails, pickleball, tennis and racquetball courts, playgrounds, picnic areas, and a large dog park close to your doorstep. From morning walks along the river to afternoons on the courts, there's plenty to enjoy right around the corner. Located in Flood Zone X, meaning no flood insurance is required. A quaint front porch welcomes you into a home that has been updated and well maintained over recent years. Inside, vinyl plank flooring runs throughout, while vaulted ceilings add an airy feel. An indoor laundry room with an included washer and dryer brings everyday convenience. Sliding glass doors open to a spacious, fenced backyard, where a deck overlooks the outdoor space shaded by a beautiful grandfather oak. A storage shed bolted to a concrete slab provides additional room for tools and outdoor essentials. Beyond your backyard, explore the coffee shops, brunch spots, and neighborhood restaurants of nearby Seminole Heights, spend an afternoon at Busch Gardens, or meet up at Yuengling Draft Haus. Proximity to the University of South Florida and convenient access to Busch Boulevard and I-275 keep everyday destinations within reach, with downtown Tampa's dining, entertainment, and waterfront experiences a short drive away. Whether you're looking for a place to call home or an investment property, this bungalow brings together charm, outdoor space, and a convenient Tampa location. Schedule your showing today!
